DR. ZAISER MADE HEAD COUNTY HOSPITAL

Many Seekers After Appointments to Be Made by Supervisors in January

SEVERAL ASK FOR PHYSICIAN'S PLACE

Veterinary Surgeon Wants the County Board to Create Position for Him to Fill

Dr. Harry E. Zaiser is superintendent of the county hospital and the county farm. While his official appointment will not be pulled off by the Board of Supervisors until tomorrow, Dr. Zaiser is already in charge of the county's institutions at the county farm at West Orange.

Under the plan of organization contemplated by the supervisors, Dr. Zaiser will be resident physician at the county farm, and will have general direction not only of the hospital but also of the indigents who are housed in the county's group of cottages at the county farm. The appointment will not disturb the position of G. W. Clement, the head farmer.

Reappointments Soon

Be it remembered that at noon, January 4, a new term of office will be begun by three of the Board of Supervisors. The late elections made no changes in the personnel of the board. Supervisors Talbert, Struck and Leck were re-elected by huge votes at the primaries, and Supervisors Smith and Schumacher are hold-overs from the election of two years ago. Starting out anew, however, a number of appointments must be made in those offices that are filled at the pleasure of the board. No action can be taken in the offices of county horticultural commissioner and county sealer of weights and measures, which appointments were made for four-year terms. County Horticultural Commissioner Bishop received a reappointment less than a year ago, and George McPhee, sealer of weights and measures, has nearly three years of his four-year term still in front of him.

Keenest interest centers in the appointments of county physician and county live stock inspector.

For Physician

There are no less than seven physicians who want to be named county physician. Among them is Dr. John Wehrly, the present county physician. Others who are reported to be in a receptive mood are Dr. Frank E. Winter and Dr. R. A. Cushman, both of Santa Ana; Dr. A. H. Domann of Orange; Dr. Albert Asborne and Dr. C. W. Harvey, both of Anaheim; and Dr. F. E. Wilson of Huntington Beach. Applications have already been filed by Drs. Osborne, Domann, Harvey and Winter. The salary of the county physician is $1350 a year.

Veterinary Surgeons

The office of county live stock inspector never wants for applicants. Generally when there is an appointment up for that position, nearly every veterinary surgeon in the county throws his hat into the ring. Dr. G. W. Closson of Anaheim, who holds the position at present, Dr. W. S. McFarlane of Anaheim and Dr. J. H. Pullin of Santa Ana are recognized candidates for the appointment.

Dr. H. O. Mantor wants the supervisors to create the position of inspector of dairies, markets, slaughter houses and other food sources. Moreover, he wants the supervisors to appoint him to fill the position. He is a veterinary surgeon.

There seems to be little question but that J. E. Pleasant of Silverado is going to be reappointed as county bee inspector. He has the indorsement of the County Bee Keepers' Club.

Among positions that are to be filled, and concerning which no contests have as yet been put in motion, are janitor at the courthouse, fire warden, game warden, courthouse arden and purchasing agent. There is no question but that J. S. Perry, who was appointed purchasing agent in August, will be reappointed.

Up Tomorrow

The supervisors have two minor appointments to make tomorrow. They are to name a justice of the peace and a constable for Newport Beach township, recently created. Each office pays $10 a month. City Marshal J. A. Porter of Newport Beach is the only applicant for constable. It is understood that Leo Goepfer and Lee Collins are to apply for the justice's job.

BISHOP IRELAND CLERIC FOR FIFTY-TWO YEARS

ST. PAUL, Dec. 21.—Archbishop Ireland observed today the fifty-second anniversary of his ordination to the priesthood. No formal ceremony was held, but the day was observed quietly. The passing of this anniversary leaves Archbishop Ireland the third oldest bishop in the United States in point of service. The other old members are Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop Ryan and Bishop Hogan.

Europe's War Is Not Without Its Humane Sidelights Soldiers Feed Hungry Children of Battlefield Victims

WOULD you take this for a "war photograph?" It looks more like a Christmas gathering of street urchins, does it not? Yet it is a "war photograph." It is also proof that the German army did attempt to make up for the suffering caused along the line of battle in Belgium and France. The photograph shows the relief corps of the army sent out after the fighting to hunt for hungry children and the distribution of bread among them. In many towns throughout that part of France occupied by the Germans crowds of children mobbed the corps to get bread.

ARMY AVIATOR IS DROWNED IN TEST FLIGHT

Two Birdmen Reported Hurl'd Into Ocean Near Oceanside; Two Make Trip

SAN DIEGO, Dec. 21.—Two army aviators flying from San Diego to Los Angeles today fell into the ocean near Oceanside. Lieutenant Fred J. Gerstner was drowned, according to a message from Oceanside.

Early efforts to confirm the fatality have been unsuccessful, however. The army aviation school at North Island is making every effort to ascertain the facts. Those who fell were Captain L. R. Miller and Lieutenant Fred J. Gerstner. They were flying in a Curtiss machine, No. 35.

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 21.—Two army aeroplanes out of the six leaving San Diego this morning for Los Angeles, preparatory to the maneuvers beginning tomorrow, arrived here shortly before noon.

Three other machines experienced engine trouble and were compelled to descend. They are expected to arrive later in the day. The sixth has not been heard from. It is believed motor trouble compelled it to descend shortly after its departure from San Diego.

Tomorrow morning the aviators leave Los Angeles in a search for a detachment of federal troops which will be hidden somewhere in San Diego county.

The two machines arriving were equipped with foreign motors. All those falling to arrive used American engines.

SIMPSON TO REMAIN WITH O. C. C. CLUB

Los Angeles Examiner: Bob Simpson, after a month's trial at the Orange County Country Club, has decided to remain in the capacity of club professional. Simpson has had several offers from Eastern golf clubs but he prefers to remain in Southern California.

Simpson is a capable professional and one of the best golf players that ever performed in the West. He was twice western open champion and plays a rattling good game. He is a good man for the Orange club and a big boost for the game wherever he goes. "Bob" ranks even higher as a good fellow than he does as a golf player, which is saying considerable.

Riots and Anarchy at Vera Cruz Is Latest Report

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Provisional President Gutierrez of Mexico today notified the state department that Gen. Mayortena would move his forces back from his present position at Naco, Sonora, to a point beyond range of the American frontier.

While immediate danger of trouble at Naco, Arizona, is thus removed, state department officials are concerned today over reports of additional activities in the interior of Mexico.

One report is that Carranza has lost control of his troops at Vera Cruz and that many executions and hundreds of arrests are occurring. The city is said to be in a state of semi-anarchy.

More skirmishes are reported near Torreon, apparently preliminary to a battle expected there.

ROSS, IN TONNEAU. LETS CAR RUN SELF

Fred Ross's latest sensational bit of demonstrating with his Studebaker car was done shortly after 1 o'clock Saturday on Fourth street when, while the car was in motion, he calmly left the steering wheel and went round, via the running board, to the tonneau and unconcernedly sat down. Ross let his car run for about a block from the William F. Lutz garage before he went back to the wheel. It is rumored that certain motorcycle officers are looking for Ross for violating the state law which says that an automobile shall not be left running without a driver.

THAW MUST FACE CONSPIRACY CHARGES

Supreme Court Orders His Return to New York Court Jurisdiction

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—Harry K. Thaw today was ordered extradited to New York.

The order was issued by a Supreme Court decision, and means that Thaw must return to New York from New Hampshire and face trial on a charge of conspiracy to escape from Matteawan Asylum. This reverses the decision of the Supreme Court of New Hampshire which granted Thaw a writ of habeas corpus.

Whether Thaw will be returned to Matteawan Asylum will depend on the New York authorities. Thaw's attorneys here declare that if their client is not tried for conspiracy or if attempts are made to hold him as an alleged lunatic, another writ of habeas corpus will be sought. The court's opinion was read by Justice Holmes. It overruled nearly every point made by Thaw's counsel.

PITTSBURG, Dec. 21.—Mrs. Mary Copely Thaw broke down when told her son, Harry, had been ordered extradited to New York to stand trial. "I simply can't believe it," was all she would say.

ALLIES TODAY BEGIN FINAL EFFORT TO DRIVE OUT INVADERS

Germans, Handicapped by Cold, Doggedly Continue Siege of Warsaw

1,000,000 RUSSIANS LINE UP TO DEFEND CITY

Usual Conflicting Claims Are Issued by Various Foreign War Offices

LONDON, Dec. 21.—Today's indications are that the allies have at last begun a general attack intended to drive the Germans from France and Belgium. Fighting throughout the western war zone is increasing in violence.

The allies claim important gains in the north. The Germans, in an official report this morning, and in unofficial statements this afternoon, issue sweeping denials of these claims, declaring they themselves made good progress.

The Russians, 1,000,000 strong, are lined up before Warsaw. Handicapped by bad weather, the Germans are doggedly battering the line.

The Carpathians are today witnessing another bloody struggle as the Austrians make a supreme effort to relieve the siege of Przemyśl.

The combined Serbian and Montenegrin forces are again reported closing in on Sarajevo.

PARIS, Dec. 21.—Occupation by the allies of the Germans' entire line of trenches southwest of Loos is announced in an official statement posted here today. In the advance on Peronne the destruction of German trenches and two pieces of artillery east of Albert, is announced. Important gains are claimed elsewhere in France and Belgium. The Germans are accused of bombarding the Ypres Hospital, Sunday.

Between Lys and the Aisne the French have taken the woods near Mix; Neulettes, where the German trenches lay near Loos, have been occupied. Arras has again been bombarded by the Germans. Claims are made that the allies are gaining the advantage in the region of the Aisne, with progress made on the entire line between the Champagne district and the Argennes.

BERLIN (by wireless to London), Dec. 21.—German attacks on the Russian positions continue. The East Prussian situation is reported as unchanged.

Spouting Flood of Oil

A well known as No. 25 of the Kern Trading and Oil Company on Section 1, 32-23, near Taft is spouting oil at the rate of 30,000 barrels per day. The well was brought in Tuesday at a depth of 3100 feet. So great is the deluge of oil that several homes in the vicinity of the gusher have been ruined. With only one exception this is the greatest gusher the Midway district has ever had. The other gusher was a well on the same section brought in two years ago this month. It poured out a great flood of oil for four weeks.

HUNTINGTON BEACH

POSTMASTER'S TERM NOW UP; NO SUCCESSOR

Seems to Be Some Doubt as to Whether or Not DeLapp is Going to Land

Former Well Known School
Principal of This County
Dies Result of Burns

HUNTINGTON BEACH, Dec. 21.—The failure of T. C. H. DeLapp to receive his commission as postmaster has given rise to speculation in political circles as to the probable outcome of the contest for the plum. There was a hot fight over the matter immediately after the election of President Wilson and a determined effort was made by some to oust Mr. Clippenger before the expiration of his term. The strongest candidates at that time seemed to be T. C. H. DeLapp, D. G. Welling, C. W. Warner, C. S. Miles and Louis Paul Hart. Of these only Mr. DeLapp and Mr. Warner are now residents of the city although Mr. Miles still lives in the territory served by the office. The county Democratic committee took the matter up and nearly two years ago DeLapp was finally given the recommendation. Congressman Kettner is supposed to have assured DeLapp of his support for the place, but Postmaster Clippenger's term of office has expired and still no appointment has been made of a successor. This has given rise to much comment and a number of receptive candidates are said to be placing themselves in the field hoping that the lightning may strike in their locality.

Clippenger has held the office for eight years. During his incumbency the office has advanced to the rank of a Presidential office and the salary is now $1700 per annum. There are some who say that no appointment is likely to be made and that Mr. Clippenger will be allowed to continue in the office, something to which he would not be averse. DeLapp's friends, however, assert that it is only a question of a few days until the appointment will be made and that DeLapp is the one who will receive the appointment.

F. H. McElfresh of this city has been named in the reports of a rich gold strike in the Cresson mine at Cripple Creek, Colorado. Mr. McElfresh is not a stockholder in the Cresson mine but does own stock in the El Oro company, which adjoins the Cresson. The El Oro shaft is now down only about 200 feet and as the Cresson company made its rich strike at the depth of about 1000 feet, Mr. McElfresh thinks his prospects are good for realizing something on his stock. Mr. McElfresh came from Colorado to Huntington Beach less than two years ago and is engaged in the mercantile business in this city.

Word was received here Sunday morning that A. W. Everett had passed away in the Santa Ana Hospital. News until late Saturday had been reassuring. Sunday morning a decided change for the worse was noticed. Mrs. Everett, who was at the bedside, telephoned to the eldest son, Victor, to come and bring the children, which he did arriving shortly before the father died. Death resulted from burns.

Mr. Everett had been closely identified with educational affairs in Orange county for a number of years. He was principal of the Huntington Beach grammar school for three years. At the end of that time he continued his residence here and took charge of the school at San Juan Capistrano until he was appointed to a position in the city schools of Los Angeles. He later became principal of the Boyle Heights school. For several years he was a member of the Orange County Board of Education and continued to hold the position even after accepting the position in Los Angeles.

Mr. Everett was one of the most active in the establishment of the free public library of Huntington Beach. He was the first president of the association and held the position for many years. Two of his children, Victor and Mildred, are graduates of the Huntington Beach high school and both have been attending Normal until the accident a week ago. Mr. Everett is survived by his widow and three younger children besides the two previously mentioned.

The funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning from the Smith undertaking parlors, Santa Ana, interment at Westminster cemetery.

A party of five, consisting of J. Riley Graham, manager of the Huntington Beach garage; Pyrr Elliott, Bert Elliott, S. W. Elliott and Virgil Elliott, have reached home after an outing on the Santa Barbara Islands that lasted somewhat longer than they intended. The party took a launch at San Pedro and with provisions for three days disembarked on the island of their destination. During the absence of the party a storm came up severe enough to prevent the launch from returning to the island and the party was forced to subsist for six days. Fishing lost all interest and fish did not taste good. At last they found a fisherman on the island who supplied them with beans. At the end of the sixth day the launch arrived for them and they were delighted to return to civilization.

Notwithstanding the bad roads, the play "My Country Sweetheart," given by the Junior class of the High School was well attended Friday evening. Although it had threatened rain during the day it cleared up in the afternoon and overhead the weather was beautiful. The play is one which was secured in manuscript form and had not been presented before by any high school. The hero of the play fell in love with a country lass, much beneath him in opportunity and education. Notwithstanding opposition of his parents, the wedding took place. Later he tired of her and seeing this she left him, not letting anyone except her father know where she had gone. Five years later he meets her again in his own home as the acknowledged belle of the college commencement, and closest friend of his own sister. He observes the striking resemblance, but thinks it cannot be his wife. He makes love to her and then discovers her identity. Miss Hazel Knight, who took the part of the heroine, was the star of the performance, while Aloys Schouls as her father and Charles Decker as Prof. Philander Potts were only a shade less successful.

Misses Annie Hill and Helen Linn of Pomona College, and Melvin Buster of the University of California have returned for the Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Moore and family have arrived from Tennessee and have located at Wintersburg, which they intend to make their permanent home.

Evangelistic services will begin at the Methodist Church Sunday, January 3.

INVESTING IN SAVINGS BANKS

Interest is being expressed in the coming one hundredth anniversary of the first American savings bank, which was started years ago in Philadelphia. These banks have had a marvelous growth, with deposits today totaling nearly five billions of money.

The development of savings banks is a matter of great public importance, from the fact that so many people know so little about securities. If small investors lose their little capital, they conclude that they might just as well spend their money and get the good of it, as to lay it away only to see it lost by dishonesty or incompetence. This discourages thrift, reduces the supply of loanable capital, restricts the development of the country, besides causing no end of personal suffering.

Some people have the impression that anything bearing the title of savings bank is sound and secure. Unfortunately the laws and financial practice of the various states vary greatly. The banks in one state may be sound and solid, while right over the border there may be loose laws and perfunctory inspections.

The savings bank near home is apt to be the safest investment. It comes down largely to a case of the personality of the men. Any intelligent workingman can form a general impression as to the ability and efficiency of the officers in charge of a bank in his own neighborhood. A small bank near home, handled by men of prudence and common sense, is a safer risk for the small investor than some bigger institution miles away. The distant bank may have grander pillars and finer mable. But it may be in the hands of financiers who are playing the stock market, or who have large and liberal ideas about doubtful securities.

TRIUMPH OF THE AMERICAN SHOE

Newspaper readers will have noted that among the big orders for supplies given for the contending armies, are enormous purchases of American shoes. It will be strange indeed if Europe does not learn from this experience that the American shoemaker is the best in the world.

Across the water the ordinary shoe combines awkwardness of form with ill-finished efforts at fancy style. As a result of the inferiority of the ready-made article, high priced custom shoe-making is said to be more common than with us.

As one looks in at the window of any good shoe store, it would be hard to speak too warmly of the fine effect made by our home made and ready to wear article. Occasionally freak styles come along, in which the normal shape of the foot is twisted into deformity. A pointed shoe may please the unthinking eye. But the drift of the times seems to be in favor of the rounded lines that follow and protect the curves of the human foot.

American makers have attained a wonderful success in producing leather that shall be pliable, soft, and comfortable to the foot, yet capable of resisting strain. The fitting of the upper to the peculiar curves of a last is a technical problem that is wonderfully solved. Years ago one often used to see wrinkles in shoes, which spoiled the contour to the eye and irritated the feet. Nowadays, by some craftsman's magic, the upper seems to emerge from the sole as if it grew there.

It will be strange, indeed, if many of the fighters of Europe, who are now to wear American shoes for the first time, are not attracted by their soft comfort after they return to normal occupations.

Progressive Outlook for 1916

BY MEYER LISSNER

National politics are badly mixed. Wilson and Bryan are busy explaining the "splendid showing" made by the Democratic party in the recent election. Barnes and Penrose can see nothing to it except elephantiasis redivivus. Roosevelt and Johnson have had very little to say on the subject of national Progressivism albeit every bull moose ear is cocked; but there is no reason why some of us who do not speak quite ex cathedra should not tell how we feel about it. So here goes for "us."

We cannot consort with Wilson and the Democratic party notwithstanding our high admiration for the President himself, and especially for the way he "puts across" his program.

We regard the Democratic tariff legislation as unsound, unscientific and harmful to the business interests of the nation; their foreign policy weak, vacillating and undignified; notwithstanding all of their hullabaloo about legislation regulating big business they have feared to exercise the power necessary to do it as it should be done, not alone for the public welfare but for the welfare and prosperity of business itself; a party afraid of power and hobbled by southern conservatism is not capable of coping with the problems of modern industrial development, the proper and satisfactory solution of which is a necessary prerequisite to the re-establishment of that confidence without which there can be no return to normal business conditions. The election just held seems pretty well to have demonstrated that the Democratic party has lost its grip upon the confidence of the nation.

We cannot go with the Republicans because they are just as wrong as the Democrats on the tariff but with reverse English; they are not any more ready than the Democrats to regulate big business with teeth; and besides it is quite impossible for any self-respecting Progressive to sit down in convention with Penrose and Barnes, Cannon and Smoot and maintain his self-respect; here in California it would mean hobnobbing and trying to work out a program with Otis, De Young, John D. Spreckels and their ilk—all of which seems absolutely incongruous and unthinkable.

The Progressive party is the only party that has a rational and scientific proposal for tariff legislation; that seems not afraid to grab the big business bull by the horns; that has any real vision when it comes to a humanitarian program; whose leaders are red-corporated beings in whose hands the safety of the nation may be placed with full confidence. The spokesmen and exponents of Progressivism throughout the nation may be looked up to with pride and self-respect.

Let no one deceive himself into the belief that any party has a cinch on the presidency for 1916.

The Republican leaders in the blind arrogance borne of the improved showing made by that party in the recent election are talking up putting up another candidate of the Taft or Penrose type. No less a political observer than Gilson Gardner says that the lesson the Republican managers claim to draw from the election returns is that the voters want to return to the policies of Hanna and McKinley—the political gospel of the "full dinner pail." Mr. Gardner also opines that there is nothing to encourage the nomination of Roosevelt and probably not much encouragement for Woodrow Wilson's renomination; and that it is not impossible therefore that the one term plank in the Democratic platform will be taken at its face value, and Champ Clark will come into his own. But even if Wilson should break another platform pledge and again be the Democratic candidate, if the present temper of the people toward Democracy becomes accentuated, we venture to predict the likelihood of that peculiar psychological phenomenon that so often happens in American politics to-wit: the mass of voters will decide which of the non-Democratic candidates stands the better show of beating the Democrat, and then will consolidate on him. Party labels count for very little in American politics nowadays. Personality counts for much. If the Wilson personality loses its grip, which of the other parties is it that has in its ranks the great popular leaders upon whom the masses will concentrate? The answer to that question we think may solve the presidential problem of 1916.

At any rate for the reasons about outlined, the Progressive party must and will continue. The practical idealists who enrolled under the Progressive banner two years ago have no appetite for a retreat toward the fleshpots. If the Republican party is stupid enough to repeat its performance of 1912, and although it seems hard to believe it is a good deal more than a probability, it will have to take the consequences. The Progressives will vote for a Progressive candidate running on a thoroughly progressive platform. If the campaign of 1916 means a repetition of the line-up and result of 1912, so be it; but as between a Wilson and a Taft in the White House, the Progressives can look with entire complacency on the existing order of things.

The straws might be served in papier mache cases fashioned in an appropriate shape, or in small cut-glass bon bon dishes with a few sprays of fragrant orange blossoms—when they are obtainable—scattered on top.

Orange Straws

Cut orange peel into strips a quarter of an inch wide with scissors; cover with cold water and boil 20 minutes; change the water and boil 20 minutes; change the water a third time and boil as before, making an hour's boiling. Add 1 cup orange pulp and 1 cup sugar; cover the whole with water and boil until it spins a thread. Now drain and roll the straws in granulated sugar and place on a platter to dry. Handle with tongs.

Peanut Brittle

Shell and skin 2 cups of peanuts and spread on a buttered platter. Put a flat pan on the stove with 2 cups of white sugar in it; stir while melting and when it spins a thread pour over the nuts.

All children love novelty or anything they have not had before. Ethnic chocolate dominoes or cocoanut haystacks, the recipes for which are here given, would be hailed with delight at a children's party, where they would be sure to be something new.

Chocolate Dominoes.

1 cup walnuts, 1 cup figs, ½ cup raisins, 1 cup almonds, 1 cup dates, vanilla.

Mix thoroughly together and force through a meat chopper. Add the grated rind of one orange, 1 tablespoonful of orange juice and 1 square of melted chocolate. Toss on a board sprinkled with powdered sugar and roll to one-third of an inch in thickness. Cut in the shape of dominoes, using a sharp knife. Spread thinly with confectioner's dipping chocolate and decorate with small pieces of blanched almonds to imitate dominoes.

Cocoanut Haystacks

1 pound sugar, 2 cups syrup, ½ pint water, butter size of walnut.

Cook until it forms a soft ball in water; stir in cocoanut until it leaves the sides of the pan. Remove from the fire while you take out a sample to cool. If it gets firm enough to form a ball the candy is done. When almost cold form into balls the size of a walnut.

The following recipe makes especially delicious fudge and has the advantage of calling for less expensive materials than are ordinarily used in making this ever-popular candy:

3 cups sugar (white), 1½ cups water, 2 squares chocolate (scant).

Put over the fire and stir until dissolved. When nearly done add a piece of butter the size of an egg and ½ tablespoonful of vanilla. Let stand until cold before beating. This gives the candy a creamy, fine-grained quality.

English Toffee

2 cups brown sugar, ½ cup butter, 4 tablespoonfuls weak vinegar, 1 cup English walnuts, chopped.

Cook without stirring until it is brittle when tried in water. Then flavor and pour over the nuts.

Penoche

2½ cups brown sugar, ½ cup cream.

Boil 20 minutes and add butter the size of an egg and ½ cup chopped walnuts and ½ cup chopped almonds and flavor. Beat well and pour into a buttered tin; cut into squares before cold.

Fedora Figs

Steam best quality bag figs until soft. Cool and make a lengthwise incision in each and insert half of a marshmallow and an English walnut broken in pieces. Close and serve in individual cases.

Cream Mints

1 lb. confectioner's sugar, 1 egg, white, well beaten, 2 teaspoonfuls iced water, 30 drops oil of peppermint.

Mix well together, roll on a bread-board and cut with a cutter about the size of a quarter.

Seafoam Fudge

1 cup brown sugar, 1 cup water, one-third cup grated chocolate, vanilla.

Boil without stirring until it spins a thread; pour into a bowl containing the stiffly-beaten white of 1 egg; drop from a spoon on waxed paper in little bon bons or pour into a pan and cut into squares before it gets cold.

Prune Squiggles

No assortment of Christmas sweets is complete unless it includes Prune Squiggles, or stuffed prunes. They are more delicate than stuffed dates and are more easily digested, which is a matter well worth consideration during this holiday season of over-eating. They are made in the following manner:

Carefully wash a pound of evaporated prunes and soak them in cold water for several hours. Put them on the fire in the water in which they were soaked and boil until tender (about 15 minutes). Drain thoroughly so as to make them as dry as possible, and when cold take out the stone and stuff as you would dates, using fondant for the filling. Roll in granulated sugar and set in a warm place to dry.

Methods of Stuffing Dates

Make a cut the entire length of a date and remove the stone. Fill the cavity with any of the following fondant: A Brazilian nut, bits of chopped walnut or peanut, half of a marshmallow of cream cheese. Roll in granulated sugar and serve.

QUICK RESULTS ASTONISH SANTA ANA

There is astonishment in Santa Ana at the QUICK results received from simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-ika, the remedy which became famous by curing appendicitis. This simple mixture drains such great amounts of foul matter from the body that a SINGLE DOSE relieves constipation, sour stomach and gas on the stomach almost IMMEDIATELY. The speedy action of Adler-ika is surprising. Rowley Drug Co., corner Fourth and Main.—Advertisement.

AMUSEMENTS

This Week's Program at Clune's

The program at this popular theater for the first three days of Christmas week promises to eclipse anything offered before, both in pictures and vaudeville. Two stars of the Selig Company will be seen to advantage in "Unrest," a novel and entertaining psychological drama. The principals in this picture are Bessie Eyton and Thomas Santschi of the "Adventures of Kathlyn" fame. Besides this feature film, the Hearst-Selig Pictorial News film will be shown.

The vaudeville part of the program sounds entertaining. Bond Morse and Clara Farley are billed as "The Man from Nowhere—the Girl from Someplace." Another number will be Dave Caston, the popular comedian. The orchestra under direction of Tony Deunorio, will render musical selections, both popular and classic. Patrons should remember that Clune's has a reputation of presenting the best, and that during the cold evenings the theater is heated uniformly and is entirely free from drafts.

HOME WEDDING

Morgan-Brown; Well Known Couple of Tustin Quietly Married

At the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morgan, in Tustin, a very pretty wedding took place at 2 o'clock Sunday. Miss Ruth P. Morgan and Fred Owen Brown were united in the holy bonds of matrimony by Rev. Otto S. Russell of Santa Ana, using the impressive ring ceremony.

Miss Carrie Mathews played the wedding march as the couple entered the parlor and took their place under a beautiful arch.

The bride was gowned in a white crepe de chine with dainty pink rosebuds for trimming, and was unattended. The living rooms were decorated with pink and white roses and similar, also the same colors used on the altar. In the dining room Christmas decorations were used where the guests were served with ice cream and cakes, the pink color motif used also in these.

About twenty-five guests, mostly relatives of the couple, witnessed the pleasant ceremony and after congratulations the couple left for a brief honeymoon. They will reside at the Morgan home for a short time upon their return.

Students at Home

LeRoy Warren came this morning from Visalia for the holiday vacation. Will Warren is home from Occidental and from the same college are Messrs. Carson Smart, Carson and Stewart Smith, LeRoy Digg, Bertram Rowley, Roy Phillips, and the Misses Helen Roberts, Lillian Walker, Nancy Elder, Eva Tidball and Laura Taylor.

Makolm Todford is home from Stanford for the Christmas festivities. The Claremont young people will arrive Tuesday and Wednesday.

Successful Bazaar

The second bazaar that the Sunshine Society held Saturday at 216 East Fourth street was quite as successful as they expected. Many useful and some very handsome fancy articles were sold, also home made pies and cakes. A sale was held the previous week in the parlors at Odd Fellows' hall, at which about twenty-five dollars was realized.

Last Saturday's sale netted the society about $16 more. This band of ladies has done many charitable deeds, and always meets any call for help that is in their power to answer.

Children's coats reduced for Xmas selling. Every coat in stock at a big saving; $5.00 coats now $3.75. All sizes, 4 to 14 years. Splendid assortment to choose from at Gilbert's. Take elevator.

LAUREL ENCAMPMENT

Patriarchal Degree Conferred on Three Candidates; Fish Dinner Follows

A very good attendance was at the meeting of Laurel Encampment No. 18, Saturday evening in Odd Fellows' hall. Three candidates were given the Patriarchal degree in a most exemplary manner. At the close of the ceremony the members were invited to the banquet hall where a bounteous fish dinner had been prepared. Sixty pounds of fish were fried by Mrs. A. E. Shoemaker, who seems to have the best way of preparing that article of diet. With the fish was served hot buns, potato chips, pickles and coffee. Those who assisted in serving were Mesdames George Peters, Chas. Cozad and Mrs. Wallace. About eighty partook of the dinner and pronounced it fine indeed.

Webster Club Initiates

The Webster Club, composed of members of the Poly high school student body, had a very pleasant meeting in the old high school building, Friday night. Several new members were put through the paces of the initiation ceremony, to their own edification and delight of the older members of the club. A large attendance of the members witnessed the initiation.

Those who were initiated into the "mysteries" were: Eugene Trago, Vern Smith, Perry Thomas, Harold Holzgrafe, "Spud" Morrison, Miss Catherine Clarkson, daughter of the editor of the Blade, and Miss Claire Burkett.

The various stunts which the newly elected members were asked to do added greatly to the occasion and merriment.

Various games were played by the members, and refreshments of hot tamales, pickles and other dainties were served. It was one of the most successful meetings the club has ever enjoyed.

George Harper of Philadelphia is a guest at the home of his brother-in-law, Charles Matern, on South Birch street. For some time Mr. Harper was superintendent of the mechanical department in a sugar plant, but when the duty was raised the machinery was shipped to Cuba. Before the factory was completed the superintendent was stricken with fever and Mr. Harper finished the job. He finally decided to try the California climate and is favorably impressed with the prospects of a future home here.

Torosa Lodge Meeting

All the members of this lodge and any Rebekahs will kindly remember at the regular meeting of Wednesday evening, December 23, the district deputy president, Mrs. Maude E. Bolton of Huntington Beach and staff officers will pay her official visit. All are invited to be present.

Notes From the Churches

Last evening in spite of the heavy downpour of rain, many of the churches carried out their programs. The stereopticon views and talk on the "Childhood of Jesus" given by Rev. E. J. Inwood at the Epworth League meeting, was of especial interest and called out a good attendance. The cantata entitled "The Shepherd King," was well given, the solo parts being taken by Miss Mabel Brooks, Mrs. A. E. Chapman and Messrs. F. J. Haynes and Carl Conway. Mrs. W. B. Snow presided at the organ.

At the Baptist church the special service was in charge of the Sunday school to a great extent. The songs, recitations and all exercises were in keeping with the Christmas spirit. The choir as usual rendered some excellent anthems. The pretty ferns and poinsettias banked over the baptismal looked very bright and the Christmas decorations were well arranged.

At the Congregational church special music was given at the morning service. A double quartet of ladies with Maurice Phillips and F. C. Rowland as tenor and bass, rendered a beautiful anthem appropriate for the season.

will hold its Christmas tree exercises at 7 o'clock Thursday evening. On Friday night the Japanese branch of this church will give a Christmas play in the Sunday school room, in which all are invited. It is surprising how well many of these Japanese can recite, also act out their customs.

Lecture By Rev. Fred Staff

It was announced yesterday in the various churches that Rev. Fred Staff would give a lecture on the European situation. This lecture will be given January 6 in the Moose hall. Rev. Staff has recently visited Sweden and other foreign countries and is well posted on the war views there, and a treat is in store for all how hear him.

Owing to the rain the cantata which was given last evening at the Christian Church will be repeated next Sunday evening. The solo parts will be taken by the Misses LaRue Fippis, Annie Witt and Mrs. Errol Lucas and Messrs. Harold Parslow and M. Nichols.

Funeral Services

The impressive funeral service over the remains of Mrs. Harriet I. Blauer was held this morning at Mills and Winbigler's chapel.

Rev. E. J. Inwood spoke in his most feeling manner and with an effort as she had been one of the devoted workers with the young people in the First Methodist church. The songs, "Sweet By-and-By" and "Where He Leads Me," were sung by Messrs. James Ludwig and Chapman and Messrs. Haynes and D. Stearns. The ladies also sang "My Jesus, As Thou Wilt," with Mrs. F. J. Haynes at the organ.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Geo. Hill, George Post, A. H. Theal, Geo. Barrows, E. E. Cooley and David Stearns.

Elegant floral offerings from the Sunday school class of which she was a member, the missionary and other societies, also from many friends, showed the last tribute that could be given to one beloved by all who knew her. For so young a woman to be taken away leaves a vacancy never to be filled in the heart and home of the bereaved husband, F. C. Blauer and the young daughter, Marjorie.

The chapel was crowded with relatives and sorrowing friends, among them a sister of the husband, Miss Edith Blauer, from Kansas City.

IMPROMPTU GAME STOPPED BY RAIN

There was no ball game at Moose Park yesterday on account of the rain. The threatening condition of the weather early in the day caused Deck to telephone to Los Angeles to postpone its visit here until next Sunday. In the afternoon several dozen baseball enthusiasts, including some of Deck's regular players, repaired to the park and started to play ball with pick-up teams. They were hard at it when the downpour started. The "shack" proved insufficient to keep the players and others dry and all were thoroughly soaked.

SOUTH AMERICAN TRADE BOOMERS MEET TODAY

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 21.—With eight hundred delegates representing all sections of the United States and all interested in the extension of American trade to foreign countries, particularly South America and the West Indies in attendance, the St. Louis Trade Convention designed to boom South American trade, was called to order here today.

Recognition of the European war as a barrier to commercial intercourse was made when the delegates confined their attention almost wholly to the countries beyond the Gulf of Mexico. Middle Western commercial houses and organizations which recently held a convention in Memphis to discuss means of utilizing the Mississippi as an artery of commerce to the southern nations were represented.

The convention is being held under the auspices of the National Foreign Trade Council of which James A. Farrell, president of the United States Steel Corporation, is president. The plan and scope committee of the convention includes Sam D. Capen of St. Louis; E. A. S. Clarke, president of the Lackawanna Steel Company of New York; P. A. S. Franklin, president of the International Mercantile Marine, New York; Fairfax Harrison, president Southern Railway, Washington, D. C.; John D. Ryan, president Amalgamated Copper Company, New York. The convention will be in session two days.

HIKERS ORGANIZE AFTER NEW YEARS

Activities at the Santa Ana Athletic Club during Christmas week will be rather limited as the ladies' dancing and gym classes have been postponed on account of many counter attractions. However, the club rooms will be open to any caring to use them.

In the early part of January the boys' and girls' hiking clubs will be organized. It is planned to have some very enjoyable trips. These hikes proved very popular and afforded much pleasure last season. Many have already inquired concerning them and indications point to a large following. The hikes are open to all, whether club members or not.

LIFE'S IMPRESSION

Sir Oliver Lodge, who last week stated again in public his conviction of a future existence, once gave an interesting study of the endurance of personality after death. In his book, "The Substance of Faith," he says: "There must be a conservation of character, notwithstanding the admitted return of the individual to a central store. Even so a villager, picked out as a recruit and sent to the seat of war, may serve his country, may gain experience, acquire a soul and a width of horizon such as he had not dreamed of, and when he returns, after the war is over, may be merged as before in his native village. But the village is the richer for his presence, and his individuality or personality is not really lost; though to the eye of the world, which has no further need for it, it has practically ceased to be. The character and experience gained by us during our brief association with the matter of this planet, become our possession henceforth for ever."

Vegetable Union Head Says
Total for Southern California is 6000 Carloads

Third Time the Charm; Tie is Broken With Sixty-One
Votes to Spare

Southern California is in the midst of its heaviest shipment of the season's vegetable products, which will total 6000 carloads, representing $1,500,000 that will accrue to the growers. This is the announcement of W. S. O'Neil of Los Angeles, president of the California Vegetable Union, through which about 80 per cent of the vegetable crop is distributed to the markets of the United States. The Union sells celery for the Celery Growers' Association of Orange County.

Segregated, the 6000 carloads of vegetables will comprise 2500 of celery, worth $200 a car; 200 of lettuce at $325; 400 of tomatoes at $750; 500 of cauliflower at $250; 400 of cabbage at $250; 200 of onions at $500; 500 of potatoes at $300; 300 of casahuate at $300, and of mixed small vegetables 1000 cars averaging $400 per car.

It is believed this year will record about 10 per cent greater production than that of 1913.

"This is certainly a banner crop year for Southern California," especially in its vegetables," declared Mr. O'Neil. "There is no place in the world where the soil, climate and other conditions are so well suited to the profitable raising of the products for shipment as here. The opportunities for the man with little cash are unlimited in this line. He must be energetic and persistent enough, however, to stick to his ranch year in and year out until he prospers."

"There are certain organizations and land owners who rent their land to vegetable growers either on the crop or cash rental basis, which enables them to start with very little funds. In the first case the renter pays one-fourth of his crop for the use of the land. In the second, a cash rental of something like $20 per acre is charged."

THE CITY POLICE
RECOVERS SUITCASE
CONTAINING TWENTY

Mattie Trumbel of Los Alamitos, at present residing at 511 South Birch street, and attending the Orange County Business College, is congratulating herself on the recovery of a suitcase, containing $20, which she missed when she alighted at Bush street this morning from the Pacific Electric car which left Los Angeles shortly after 7 o'clock. Miss Trumbel, when she found that her suitcase had been taken by someone else, notified the police of her loss. On going to the P. E. office on North Main street she found that her suitcase had been left there by a lady who had taken it by mistake. In addition to the four five-dollar bills the suitcase contained some clothing, letters and a new raincoat.

Theft at Arcade
The police have been notified of the theft from the Arcade rooming house on East Fourth street Saturday of a lady's blue suit and coat, a comforter and a pillow. A Mexican seen lurking about the premises is believed to have been responsible for the theft.

Hebo Gets Coat
A tramp seen at the Alexandria billiard parlor on North Main street Saturday evening is thought to have been the party who exchanged his own ragged coat for that of the porter employed at the place. The coat, a blue one with a light stripe, had been left hanging in the rear of the premises.

ORANGE
BASKETBALL GAME
IS WON BY ORANGE
BY AN EASY SCORE

ORANGE, Dec. 21.—In a hard-fought basketball game at the Athletic Club Friday evening, the Orange team defeated the Los Angeles College five by a score of 45 to 16.

Although outclassed in the scoring, the visitors put up a stubborn fight and the contest was full of interest. The Orange men had hard work getting started, but toward the finish the team hit its stride and scored with regularity. A personal encounter between Pine of the Orange team and Beach of the visitors, in which the spectators took a hand, created a diversion in the second half, but peace was finally restored and the game proceeded.

The teams lined up as follows:
Orange L. A. College

WOOD'S THEORY OF DISCIPLINE IS TO GUIDE CHILD'S WILL AND NOT TO BREAK IT IN SCHOOLROOM

Two splendid addresses marked the opening session of the Orange County Teachers' Institute at the Intermediate school this morning. Each of the speakers is thoroughly alive to the new things in educational work, each had a message which was delivered in an interesting, clear manner.

Following music by Ruby Kent and James Sheppard of the Fullerton high school, came invocation by Rev. Paul E. Wright of Santa Ana. R. P. Mitchell, county superintendent, presided.

"The Spirit of American Discipline" was the subject of an address given by Will C. Wood, state commissioner of secondary schools. Commissioner Wood has a reputation as a disciplinarian, having quelled what was considered the worst school in Alameda county.

His theory of discipline is not to drive but to lead. His theory of developing a child is to broaden, not curb, to direct and not to force.

For the Republic
He said that American education should be with a view to fitting a child for a republic, not a monarchy. The old idea of the individuals. Character should be developed in order that the child may become a useful American citizen. A child will should be kept alive and directed in the right avenue. The breaking of a child's will spells disaster.

He said that he believed that George Washington was a man whose will was never broken in childhood. He stood for what he thought was right. While George Washington generally received great credit for his part in the cherry tree story, really great praise should be given his father for the wise manner in which he kept the child.

Another man whose will, Wood said he was confident was never broken, was Abraham Lincoln. Because they were ever seeking compromises and wavered often, Wood said he thought both Calhoun and Webster had their wills broken when children.

Adjust to New Things
A. E. Winship, a Boston educator, brought forth strongly the facts that life is changing rapidly, and that education and ideals of education are changing rapidly. He urged teachers to keep up with the new things in education, not to linger over old-fashioned and Marlin, of Santa Ana; Ross Ditchey, Orval Norden, Homer McPherson, Orin Stacey and Dayton Ditchey.

Mrs. Sue A. Truby of South Olive street left Saturday for St. Segundo to spend the holidays with her daughter, Mrs. Ed Smith, and family.

Miss Florence Briggs of Palo Alto is here to visit a few days with her friend, Miss Marjorie Ainsworth.

Mrs. George F. Orghelt spent the week-end with Los Angeles friends.

Miss Marjorie Ainsworth is home from the Westlake School for Girls to spend the Christmas holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Ainsworth.

Arthur Shipke is home from Occidental College for the Christmas vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Hart motored to Los Angeles to spend Saturday.

Among Saturday's Los Angeles visitors were: Mrs. Frank Palmer, Miss Lucile and Gretta Brooks, I. N. Barnett, Mrs. C. W. Eastin, Miss A. Ralph, C. E. Hudson.

The program for tomorrow follows:

RANCHERS WANT TOP TURKEY PRICES

A Good Many Sales of Christmas Fowl Are Made Through Classified Ads

While the local poultry dealers are selling lots of turkeys, their sales are probably duplicated by those made by ranchers direct to the consumers. Incidentally it is said that prosperity is certainly abroad in Santa Ana, for generally it takes prosperity to have turkey at Christmas or any other time.

Ranchers have been using the Register's classified ads to sell Christmas turkeys, and excellent results have been obtained.

Local poultry dealers say that the ranchers have been holding out for better prices than the dealers can afford to pay. Los Angeles wholesalers will not pay over twenty cents a pound for the gobble or his mate. The local retailers are asking housewives twenty-three cents a pound. Some of the ranchers have secured that much or more for their turkeys, through sales to consumers.

A LIVE SPORT LETTER

By Hal Sheridan

NEW YORK.—Give Pittsburg University a clean bill of health. The 125-year-old institution deserves the verdict. The wild rumors that have been circulated to the effect that there was professionalism in the ranks of Pitt's crack football team were nailed to the mast today by K. E. Davis, graduate manager of athletics at the Smoky City university.

Acting on a suggestion recently made in this column that "where there was so much smoke—there ought to be an explanation," Graduate Manager Davis has irrefutably shown the smoke to have come from Pittsburg's factory chimneys, or from some of the so-called "Big Four" class teams who were lamped by the Pittsburgian clan at football last fall, and wanted to show an alibi.

Manager Davis gives his alibi in the form of a pretty complete history of every member of the team. At any rate the history is complete enough to dispel any idea that the Pittsburg eleven had a taint of professionalism in its system. If there are still remaining any unbelievers who want to be convinced, the histories of the Pitt players may be had from the writer on application.

Manager Davis' communication, by the way, conveys the rather interesting information that, with two exceptions, Pennsylvania furnished all except two of the regulars. With these two exceptions, all learned the rudiments of the game in Western Pennsylvania high and prep schools—three of them at Bellefonte Academy.

Another point that might interest those who started the professionalism rumor is the fact that the eligibility rules at Pittsburg University are practically identical with those of the larger eastern institutions, with the one exception of the residence rule. Popular demand inside the school this year will put such a rule into effect before another twelve months, according to Manager Davis.

SATURDAY CROWD IS A RECORD BREAKER

Army of Christmas Shoppers Invades Santa Ana's Business District

A great army of Christmas shoppers invaded the business district of Santa Ana Saturday morning and increased in volume until by late afternoon it had reached proportions to cause merchants to declare that the crowd was the greatest in the business history of the city.

All local business men are wearing smiles of satisfaction caused by the gratifying holiday trade which the public is doing. In spite of the rain of the last few days business at the local stores has been good and the crowds increased in size until Saturday.

day, when all previous records for holiday shopping were broken.

Busiest Day of History

"I think I am safe in saying that last Saturday's crowd was the greatest that Santa Ana has ever had," said E. S. Gilbert, proprietor of Gilbert's dry goods store, and president of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association, today. "Not only was Saturday's business at our store extremely satisfactory, but the entire past week has been better than for the corresponding period last year. Although a very great proportion of shoppers has already completed its buying for this season, all indications are that the trade in local stores will continue satisfactorily until late Thursday evening. People are shopping earlier this season than ever before. The more discriminating buyers were all through with their buying several weeks ago."

Increase Over Last Year

J. H. Rankin, of the Rankin Dry Goods Company, said: "While we have not as yet compared figures, I am certain that our Saturday business will show an increase over the same day last year. The crowd in Santa Ana Saturday was as great as any I have ever seen. We anticipate that this week, up to and including Thursday evening, will be very satisfactory. Local merchants certainly have no cause to complain at the amount of business being done this season."

Practically all the stores will remain open during the evenings until Christmas.

JITNEY BUS' DRIVERS SEE 'THE LIGHT'

Trustees' "Golden Rule" Method to Regulate Parking of Cars Works

The "Golden Rule" method adopted last Monday evening by the city trustees to regulate the matter of the "jitney buses" standing for undue lengths of time on North Main street, between Fourth and Fifth, seems to be working out to the complete satisfaction of all concerned. The resolution adopted by the trustees was in effect that the city marshal go around and quietly inform the bus men to let their machines stand on Main street only long enough to take on and unload passengers and the remainder of the time to park the "jitney buses" on Fifth street. The resolution was adopted in order to determine whether the bus problem could be handled without the necessity of passing an ordinance.

"The thing has worked out very well," said City Marshal Jernigan today. "I simply told the drivers quietly about the resolution the board had passed and the 'jitney bus' men took the hint and are parking their cars on Fifth street. I simply told them that other people had as much right to that section of Main street between Fourth and Fifth as they and that there would be no objection to the drivers taking on and unloading their passengers on Main as long as they did not make a practice of leaving their cars stand for more than a few minutes at a time. Only one driver seemed to get a little 'sore,' but it didn't take him long to realize the justice of the city trustees' stand."

OLDFIELD TO BE SEEN HERE FRIDAY

Despite Rumors Speed Veteran Will Race McGuire on Scheduled Date

In spite of reports to the contrary, Barney Oldfield will be seen at the Santa Ana race track Friday. Wilfred Collins, one of those having the exhibition in charge here, went up to Los Angeles today and found that Oldfield had never made a statement to the effect that there was a likelihood of his running his postponed race with Bob Burman at Los Angeles Christmas day.

"We have given you our word that we would appear at the Santa Ana track on the afternoon of Christmas day," said Oldfield this morning, "and we are going to make good. As I have said before, I am anxious to get Santa Ana on the motor racing circuit which we are starting in Southern California. That is why we would not consider for a moment the postponement of Friday's event and the consequent disappointment of the people who were preparing to see my race with McGuire."

Yesterday's Oldfield-Burman 50-mile race at Ascot Park was postponed on account of the muddy condition of the track. The drivers were ready to run the event in the mud, but the race officials requested the drivers to hold their event as they considered it too classy to be thrown away on a slow track. It is reported that Oldfield is slated to meet Earl Cooper in a match race at Fresno next Sunday. At the time of going to press it had not been learned what are "the master drivers' plans, but that he will be seen here next Friday is absolutely certain.

"Just what we needed," is what the vegetable growers, ranchers and orchardists are saying of the rainstorm which has been drenching the Southland in the last few days. be one of the most beautiful in years. The rains so far have been of the gentle variety with the result that there has been no washing to speak of and that the waters have beneficially soaked into the ground. What slight damage there was done was visited on the seashore.

The rain which has already fallen makes it absolutely certain that every available foot of soil in Orange county adaptable to vegetable growing will be worked this season. Should the rainfall from now on be only fair, the drenching which the South has had so far assures a far greater vegetable acreage this coming season than was the case during the past season.

Extensive Planting

At Villa Park, the Orange County Vegetable Association is making great plans for extensive planting. Heretofore this association has not entered very greatly into the summer market, contenting itself with raising winter vegetables. This coming summer, however, on account of the splendid rains which have already fallen and on account of the expositions at San Francisco and San Diego, the summer acreage will be greater than ever before in the history of the county's vegetable industry. As soon as all danger from frost is past the planting of the summer's crop will commence.

SCRIBE WRITES FROM EASTERN FRONT

Tells of How Marching Orders
Stir Enthusiasm in Days of Galician Dullness

FELDPPOSTAMT, NO. 39, near the Hungarian frontier Nov. 7.—(By courier to Vienna)—Here's the way that we get our marching orders in the Kriegspressequartier, the war press headquarters in Austria Hungary. Only yesterday morning some of us returned from Przemyel to this quaint little ancient town in Galicia, expecting days of dullness until we were again taken to the front.

At the noonday meal the officer in charge of the scores of carriages which are at our disposal rapped on his wine glass for attention and said: "Who wishes to go to —" naming the big Galician town six miles distant, where there are coffee houses, stores and other blessings of civilization. His question is a daily one; he asks it only to know how many carriages he must have ready after dinner and at what hours. We raise our hands, he counts heads and two hours later we find ourselves after a ride through the hills, walking the streets of a lively town, where some of the chief officers of the army have their headquarters including the particular officer who has charge of the newspaper correspondents.

Waiter's Tricks

We go to the conee house to talk to Max. He used to be a waiter in a newspaper row restaurant in New York and he's always willing to talk interestingly of those golden days before he took a notion to come back to Galicia with his "pile," only to lose it here. In 1915, though, he's going back; he knows where he can make $10 a day anytime in New York or Chicago or Frisco by his waiter's tricks. He confesses some of his New York tricks to you, now that the old days and the old place are far away and so you talk, waiting for Sunday to end. It does so with a bang, at exactly six o'clock. The arc lights have been going for an hour, but suddenly the streets are turned into little broadways by store lights which flood the pavements as the Jewish merchants raise their shutters at six.

You fare forth in the streets crowded with officers, soldiers, civilians, girls and youths a-courting and in the rush you meet another newspaper man.

"We go to Serbia in the morning at 3 o'clock," he says. "I've just heard it."

Something Doing

You do not believe such good news. You rush to army headquarters and to the offices of the colonel who has charge of the fates and destinies of newspaper men. His offices are crowded with other officers receiving orders. There is not a chance to speak to him. Anyhow, if the story is true, you'll hear it, officially, in time. Officers are rushing in and out. One of them has a bale of paper bills as high as a silk hat. Something's doing, anyhow, so you get out.

Back over the hills you go between seven and eight in the cold evening and enter the long, narrow room where supper is at eight.

An officer is reading orders, with a group of newspaper men standing about him. He calls out a list of names; those mentioned cross to the other side of the room.

"At three o'clock tomorrow morning be at the depot," he says to them. "We are going to Serbia to see the Austrian lines there. All those names I have not called will go on a train that leaves at 3 o'clock in the morning, day after tomorrow. We are to go in two lots."

Rushing Around

Supper is gulped and there's a lot of packing and a little sleeping to be done within the next seven hours for those who go tomorrow morning. And so, all through the night, there is a scurrying of soldier servants through the streets of the little old village. They rush from one little house here to another little house there where correspondents have rooms, collecting

The Evidence is at Your Door

Santa Ana proof is what you want and the statement of this highly respected resident will banish all doubt: E. C. Burdick, 918 E. Fifth street, Santa Ana, says: "My back was in such bad shape that I could hardly get up or down. At times when I moved, sharp pains darted through me. I was in pretty bad shape. The doctor tested the kidney secretions and told me that all my suffering was caused by poor kidney action. I used Doan's Kidney Pills steadily for about a year and I have taken them off and on ever since. When I started to use them I had to go around on crutches, not daring even to take either off the floor for fear of falling. Now I can get around with ease and my back is in good shape."

Pitcher was the son of Ben Pitcher of Burnsville, W. Va. He was beating his way on the trains. A wire has been sent to the father in West Virginia. The dead man was about 24 years of age.

PANAMA CANAL TOLLS PASS MILLION MARK

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The tolls on vessels making use of the canal reached and passed the $1,000,000 mark November 18, representing dues collected from 257 vessels, of which thirty were in ballast common cargo boats. The receipts, which began with $11,610 prior to August 15 when the canal was used for barges only, reached $387,242 for the month of October. The largest part of the traffic was made up of coast-bound trade between the east and west coasts of America, which made up more than 600,000 tons of the total tonnage of 1,297,484.

PENNSY'S FOOTBALL CHAMP—IN SOCIETY

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Dec. 21.—Pennsylvania is the winner in the Intercollegiate Association Football league which closes its season today. The Red and Blue clinched the championship two weeks ago and the only interest in today's game between Harvard and Columbia here is the settling of second position. By a curious wrinkle in the league's rules the Crimson does not need to win to get the runnerup position. A tie game will be sufficient for the rules provide that a tie counts one point and a victory counts two.

Sartori Explains System

(From Los Angeles Financial News.)

"The inauguration of the Federal Reserve system means increased prosperity for the United States. The Federal Reserve banks are essentially commercial banks. Their business will be rediscount commercial paper for other banks. That is to say, paper arising out of manufacture, purchase and sale of merchandise and short-time loans made to people engaged in agricultural pursuits." This is the view of Joseph F. Sartori, president of the Security Trust and Savings Bank, member of the currency commission of the American Bankers' Association, former president of the savings bank section of that organization and one of the best known bankers in this country. Continuing Mr. Sartori said:

"The member banks will continue as heretofore to make commercial loans to their customers and to others entitled to commercial credit. These loans which have a maturity of ninety days or less from the date of discount will be available for discount by the member banks with the Federal Reserve bank. Heretofore when there has been extraordinary demand for legitimate credit the individual banks could not at all times meet or satisfy the demands without borrowing from each other, which sometimes was difficult to do. Now the individual banks will be able to meet such legitimate demands for additional credit by rediscounting their available paper with the Federal Reserve bank. Under the new system therefore there should be no difficulty in all merchants, manufacturers and retailers obtaining loans providing they are entitled to such credit in the judgment of the member banks with which they are doing business.

"There will be an added ability to the national banks to extend further legitimate credit. The whole-saler and manufacturer of good credit will be more able at all times to get accommodated by his bank. The same will be true of the retail merchant. It applies also to the farmer. If his bank thinks that he is entitled to credit it is more able to extend it, because the bank can use his paper for rediscounting.

"Of course, under the new system the banks will be quite conservative in the matter of rediscounting and will only do so when it is absolutely necessary in order to meet the legitimate demands of their responsible customers. They are not going to sell their loans for the purpose of reloaning when not absolutely necessary to maintain the business equilibrium. If rediscounting should be engaged in by banks to a large extent it would soon result in undue and unsafe expansion of credit. The natural conservatism of bankers and the able management of the Federal Reserve banks together should obviate any such expansion of credit.

"The reduced reserve requirements under the federal reserve act together with the rediscounting ability of the Reserve bank based on their capital and deposits should in the near future ease the demand for legitimate commercial credit, and this should soon be followed by an easier market for fixed or time loans on other securities, such as stocks, bonds and real estate. The new banks will create and continue confidence, and it is lack of confidence which has in the past had much to do with periods of financial distress. With our increased exports, the increased demand abroad for many of our factory products and the new facilities of our new banking system, there is every reason to hope for increased prosperity for the whole nation."

the men in the rowboat and a launch was rushed to the scene, bringing the injured man to the headquarters of the corps at Balboa.

Surgeons were on hand when the launch arrived, and, with the assistance of Mrs. Joseph Ferguson and a few of the life-saving corps, the man was made as comfortable as possible. The county ambulance was summoned and Mr. Dennis was removed to the Santa Ana Hospital at Santa Ana.

Mr. Dennis has two sisters residing at Hollywood, Mrs. C. P. Spinks, 1626 Winona boulevard, and an unmarried sister in the employ of the Citizens' Trust and Savings Bank of Los Angeles.

GERMANY HOARDS CEREAL SUPPLY

By Conserving Grain in Hand
Fatherland Will Get Along
Till Harvest of 1915

ROME, Nov. 15.—(By mail to New York)—The Federal Council of Germany has adopted rigorous measures for conserving Germany's cereal supply during the present war, according to advices here. Statistics just completed by experts establish that on the basis now provided for Germany will have no difficulty in getting along until next year's crops are harvested.

One of the new measures enacted by the Federal Council provides that all millers shall grind wheat to the extent of 75 per cent of it becomes flour. This does away with the waste that ensues in the grinding of fine qualities of flour. The percentage for rye is fixed at 70 per cent.

All bakers are ordered to mix with wheat flour at least 10 per cent of rye flour. Five per cent of potatoes must also be mixed in bread made exclusively of rye flour and this may even be increased up to 20 per cent. On bread of this kind the bakers are required to place the letter "K" indicating that potatoes are used in its manufacture but they are not required to state to what extent. Failure to do this, has already caused considerable protest by the public who say that bakers can charge them the same price for 20 per cent "spud" bread as for the 5 per cent variety.

The feeding to animals of grains which can be made into bread has also been prohibited. An exception has been made in the case of small land proprietors who wish to fatten their livestock. They can feed a small amount of rye if it has been grown on their own land.

The fact that the potato supply is somewhat short this year, a shortage which will be increased by the fact that they must also be used in bread making, has also resulted in restrictive measures to conserve them. The use of potatoes in the making of spirits is limited to 60 per cent of the usual amount.

To prevent speculators and others from withdrawing grain from the market in order to hold it for higher prices a number of measures have been enacted permitting the government to appropriate all such grain. Prices have also been fixed for an entire year in advance in order to diminish further the possibility of speculation.

These prices vary according to locality, the highest being at Berlin and the lowest at Bromberg in Posenania. The prices in vogue now will continue without change till the first of the year. After that there will be an increase of 36 cents a ton every two weeks.

On this basis the experts estimate that the present rye supply will last till September 1, 1915, and the wheat supply till the first of August. Of barley there is plenty for the army and no restrictions have been placed on its consumption.

The newspapers are practically unanimous in upholding the measures thus enacted. They declare it is the first duty of the government to thus provide for the feeding of the army on which the national existence depends. They also call upon the rich to give up the eating of whole wheat bread and to use the same rye and potato mixed composition as the masses. This they declare, would be an act of patriotism which they really owe the country and the army.

A LIVE SPORT LETTER

By Hal Sheridan

NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—Base, utterly base conspiracy of the deepest hue is now charged against the "Dead-Feds." Whether Organized Ball will take the matter to the grand jury remains to be seen. It's how the conspiracy charge is doped out by the fretted, picked-on magnates of O. B.

The Federals have copped a lot of bullion. With this bullion, sometimes piled high on tables in rooms where Big League players are invited to talk things over, and sometimes actually paid out to players who don't care about harsh words, but jump to the Federals in spite of them, the Federals are in a terrible conspiracy to make ball players believe that Organized Baseball hasn't all the money in the world.

That sounds like a josh, but the sad part of it is that it's based on actual fact. When the National League was holding its meeting here a week or so back, one magnate seriously suggested that major league leaders proceed against the Federals on the ground that the latter are conspiring to get all the good players in the world and to injure the standing of Organized Ball.

The suggestion was one of many others just as foolish that were sprung at the most foolish and aimless thing in the world—to wit: a meeting of the magnates, or magnats, as a contemporary calls 'em. About the only real good done is the advertising the game gets, and sometimes the advertising isn't entirely complimentary.

About the most sensible suggestion made at the N. L. meeting came from one of the lesser lights, who asked why the Organized Ball leaders don't hop to the offensive and use some of that much mooted $500,000 war fund.

True, it would be recognizing the Feds to compete in the matter of salaries, but it would save a lot of court action that gets them nothing in the majority of cases, and would make the fans think they meant business.

AMERICAN MARINES TO BE AT HOME CHRISTMAS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 21.—The American marines of the Fifth Regiment, the last of the expeditionary forces to return from recent foreign service, are coming home for Christmas.

The navy department has been notified that the transport Hancock with the full regiment aboard left Port au Prince, Hayti, Thursday night for Philadelphia, where she should arrive next Wednesday. They have been on service for some time in Hayti and the Dominican republic, both of which are now quiet again.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and abundant. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is messy and out of date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a 50-cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old recipe which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, feverish, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two it becomes beautifully dark, glossy, and abundant. —Advertisement.

WOULD HAVE THE PRESIDENT ABOLISH THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC AT ONCE BY PROCLAMATION

BY MRS. J. M. MORROW, OF ORANGE.

As is well known, President Lincoln issued the Emancipation Proclamation on January 1, 1863, thus conferring freedom upon every slave in the United States. Up to this time a part of the United States was free from slavery, according to law. In some of the states slaves were held in bondage, according to law. Yet, the President, issued, in accordance with the National Constitution, the proclamation of freedom to all slaves in any and every state of the Union.

After the issuance of the proclamation steps were taken to incorporate this declaration of freedom in the National Constitution; but, although every government official had been elected on an anti-slavery platform, it took exactly three years, lacking thirteen days, to get this anti-slavery amendment incorporated in our National Constitution (Dec. 18, 1863). A similar, say rather an identical condition exists today. The Constitution of the United States grants no warrant for the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors. True, manufacture and sale is permitted in some of the states. In other states it is strictly prohibited.

In these United States, today, with a vast majority of our officials elected on license platforms, we are being encouraged to expect the enactment of a prohibitory amendment to the Constitution in 1920. If it took three years, from 1863, to get an amendment with practically every official elected on the platform of that amendment, why should we now expect a prohibitory amendment to carry so promptly, when such a tremendous majority of officials have been and are being elected on license platforms?

In view of the above indisputable historical facts and in view of present history-making conditions, therefore, be it Resolved, That we, the people, the Church, the W. C. T. U., the Y. M. C. A., etc., do hereby respectfully petition our honored and honorable President of the United States, Woodrow Wilson, to exercise the same presidential authority as did Abraham Lincoln and proclaim that the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors for beverages, is and shall forever be prohibited in these United States.

It is objected that the Emancipation Proclamation differs from the proposed prohibition proclamation in as much as the former was a "war measure" and this is a time of peace—for which mercy the Lord be thanked! And why should not this time of peace be strengthened, confirmed, perpetuated and satisfied by our Heavenly Father if we at once and forever break the bonds of eternal destruction now imposed on this nation for revenue only?

Here is a riddle: A proposed measure pronouncing for obedience to the law of God and man, beneficent in its nature bringing peace and prosperity in its train, is unacceptable as a "war measure, because, forsooth, this is a time of peace." Another "war measure" which breaks every command of the Decalogue is enacted by our government fifty-two years ago, the revenue therefrom demanded and still accepted, to pay the war debt, the war itself having closed forty-nine years ago. Which?

Who is responsible for the continuation of the traffic? The saloon has bought, and continues to buy, license to sell intoxicating liquors, paying hard cash therefor.

But what it to be said of a Christian government which today receives revenue from a traffic licensed fifty-two years ago to pay the "debt" of a "war" that ended forty-nine years ago?

The Treasury Department, Washington, D. C., is authority for the statement that the Civil War debt is still unpaid.

Every nation of those now at war in Europe has been demanding and receiving revenue from drink—some of them for hundreds of years. Grandly has Russia, and in twenty-four hours, renounced now and forever this maranatha. France forbids the use of absinthe and other intoxicants by her soldiers. England also.

Governor Goethals has pronounced the Panama Canal dry. Heathen (?) China having by clear grit ended revenue from opium in her country is apparently the peaceablest nation on that side of the earth.

And, says Secretary Bryan concerning the present situation toward the liquor traffic: "Prepare for the fight."

A Potpourri of News and Views

(From Los Angeles Financial News.)

Kruttschnitt Is Optimistic

"It may be simply a state of mind but I can't help but believe that we have 'touched bottom' and that conditions are improving. I am confident that we have seen the worst and that better times are ahead for us. The European war was directly responsible for only a small part of the conditions, but business interests are so intertwined that like a house of cards, when one card is hit the whole house falls." This is the optimistic view of conditions expressed by Julius Kruttschnitt, chairman of the Executive Committee of the Southern Pacific Company, who was in Los Angeles this week on a tour of inspection of the system. Continuing he said:

"As far as the Southern Pacific is concerned, we are like an individual, we can't keep on borrowing money to meet expense. We are caring for only the most urgent improvements as the conditions arise, and are going extremely slow in thinking about future ones. I have had recommendations handed to me for improvements on the various parts of the system that at a conservative estimate would aggregate from $40,000,000 to $60,000,000. I am authorizing only those that are imperative. We must have new rails and must constantly improve our roadbed to make for the safety of passengers, but we are not considering new stations or extensions. We must keep expenditure commensurate with revenue.

"It stands to reason that the railroads must have more revenue. They can't live on what they are making now. With the decrease of rates has come an increase of wages and higher prices for materials. Rates have been fixed at the point where the railroads can only make a fair return on their investment when business is good, and when traffic is low they must suffer. The traffic now is small and whether it will increase to a point where a reasonable dividend can be paid no mortal man can say. No railroad can maintain its credit unless it can pay a reasonable dividend in addition to paying interest on its investment and at the same time acquire a reasonable surplus.

"Just what effect the Panama Canal is going to have on the railroads it is impossible to say until it can be seen how it will work out. It is a fact that up to the present time the water business has cut into the railroad freight traffic. However many of the shippers are just trying the water route out because it is a new thing. Then regardless of how much traffic the canal may mean it will not be a complete loss for us, for the vessels can only bring the freight to the coast and the railroads will have the haul from the coast to interior points. Again we must figure that the canal opening will build this country up and make more business and more travel. I do not feel morose as to the future, I know that the Canal is there to stay, and I also feel that the Southern Pacific is here to stay."

Regarding the question of Government ownership Mr. Kruttschnitt said: "If I could run another man's business as I am now pleased, regulating the service he is giving, his customers and determining the price he asked and the profits, if any, he receives without taking any of the responsibility of the business, why should I want to own it? That is what the Government is doing, and what could they gain by owning the railroads outright?"

Apples in Plenty For You

"America's apple crop, at a reasonable estimate, this year will approximate fifty million barrels," says Farm and Fireside. "This sized crop would furnish one-half barrel, or 150 apples, for each member of our population. An apple a day eaten out of hand by Uncle Samuel's family from October to March would consume our entire crop. This makes no allowance for pie, apple sauce, and baked apples. Our normal export of apples is about two million barrels, so should no apples go abroad this year we can each be allowed a half-dozen more, 156 apples per capita. Really our apple market should not suffer if those six apples are kept at home."

Control of Colorado River

Secretary of the Interior Lane recently called a convention in Washington, to be held on the 16th inst. for the purpose of discussing legislation providing for the Colorado River Control to be submitted to Congress. A delegation from Los Angeles, from Imperial County and from the Southern Pacific railroad will attend and left Los Angeles yesterday. The personnel follows: William H. Booth and Isidore Dockweiler will represent the Chamber of Commerce; M. W. Conkling, W. H. Best and Leroy Holt, all residents of the Imperial Valley, will represent the people of that section and W. J. Doran will represent the interests of the Southern Pacific.

Noted Diplomat Called

William R. Rockhill, distinguished American diplomat, who was recently appointed adviser to Yuan Shih Kai, President of China, died in Honolulu, Tuesday, when he had been stricken ill on the liner Chiho Maru on which he had booked through passage to Japan and was removed from the vessel on arrival at Honolulu, taken to a hospital in that city where the end came.

State Banks May Come In

State bankers, through representatives, at a conference with the Federal Reserve Board in Washington this week, suggested that the bank law be modified so that State banks might enter or leave the Federal Reserve system at will.

Reviving a Famous Camp

The famous old mining camp of Belmont, Nev., is to take on a new period of activity, and the old mines are to be reopened, says the Mining and Engineering World. The Nevada California Power Co. is now talking of extending the transmission lines from Tonopah, by the way of Manhattan, to Belmont. The history of this old camp is very interesting. It was discovered before the building of the Union Pacific railroad, and was known in its early history as "Silver Bend." Later, the name was changed to Belmont, and it was the county seat of Nye county until 1904, at which time the county seat was moved to Tonopah. Belmont was 180 miles from the main line of the Central Pacific, and about 84 miles from Austin, Nev., which was on a branch line. There was no opportunity for water power in the vicinity, and so steam power was used—made by burning sage brush and scrub pine under the boilers. This fuel was carried into Belmont on pack animals, and was sold in early days for $3 a load—a load being what one burro could carry. Several big mills and chlorination works were built, and brick furnaces and high smoke stacks were erected. It is said that the bricks for these were hauled from Kansas City, and that they cost $1 apiece by the time they were landed in Belmont. Even with all this expense, Belmont produced much profitable ore, and boasted a population of between 8000 and 10,000 people at one time. Among the mines of the district there is none more than 500 or 600 feet deep, and at the present time all are filled with water. It is now planned to unwater and reopen the mines, using electric power, and with the modern methods of mining and milling hundreds of thousands of tons of low-grade ore will be available.

Assessors of State Meet

County Assessors Association of California held their thirtieth annual convention this week in Merced. The attendance was large sixty out of seventy-two Assessors and Assessors-elect of the State, besides as many more visitors, including tax experts, members of the State Board of Equalization. Among the speakers was State Controller Chambers who, in a paper which he read on "State Revenue," said that the abolition of the corporation tax and the poll tax made a deficit probable. As to means of overcoming this suggestion made included the raising of rates on all or several of the public utility corporations and the banks; to levy an ad valorem tax, a liquor traffic tax, an income tax and a license tax upon all lines of business not conducted by corporations which are now taxed.

Professor Case C. Phelan, State Tax Expert, in an address on the income tax law declared that "the income tax was not necessary as a financial measure at the time of its adoption. It was thought that the reduction of the tariff would reduce the revenues from that source. It is, of course, too early to forecast the full effect on the revenues of the recent tariff revision." He outlined the history of income taxes and compared the United States tax with that of other countries.

In his opening address President Hopkins stated that despite the financial depression the counties have been able to maintain their valuations—in fact, have increased them.

Quincy Maintains Its Record

By declaring a dividend of 50 cents a share, payable December 21, Quincy Mining Company, is able to claim its dividend record unbroken for 46 years, or since 1868. No other American copper mine has so enviable a record; no other copper mine in the world, save the Tharsis Sulphur and Copper Co. of Spain, has made annual payments to stockholders over so long a period. The last previous dividend on Quincy was declared in September, 1913. Though 14 months have since elapsed it makes no difference in the dividend record, measured by calendar years.

Commissions Come High

"The story of the Illinois Railroad Commissioner who, when at a hearing where there was considerable discussion of L. C. L. rates (less than carload), innocently asked one of the railroad men, 'What road do they mean when they refer to the L. C. L.?' is now supplemented by a letter written by the chairman of one of the State Railroad Commissions in the Southwest to one of the railroads pointing out the fact that the company showed only a $150,000 surplus over all deductions in the recent year and he wished to know what had become of the $1,000,000 surplus that was shown in the previous year," says the Wall Street Journal.

Value Placed on Railway

The reproduction cost, less depreciation, of the Crescent City Railway, as of June 30, 1914, has been found by the Railroad Commission to be $430,052.55. This railroad, which is owned by William G. Henshaw, operates between Riverside, Bloomington and Rialto. Passenger service is performed by the Pacific Electric Railway. The principal revenue of the line is derived from shipments of cement from the cement plant at Crestmore.

Steel Practically Indestructible

Through the discovery of a new process of treating steel, made by Professor A. A. Michelson and announced before the National Academy of Sciences, the metal is made several times stronger than the present product and becomes practically indestructible. The discovery revolutionizes the making of steel.

Holland Hurt By War

Holland is feeling the effect of the war to the extent of $80,000,000. This is her cost so far. In that the ordinary revenue will be 75,000,000 florins less this year than last it is proposed to secure a loan of 275,000,000 florins, to add an extra per cent to all direct taxes and to levy indirect taxes.

Our Market In Australia

Several merchants from Australia now in the United States, seeking various products for immediate delivery, declare that Australia presents an open and eager market for United States merchandise and that opportunities in that country for makers of American goods are tremendous.

War Tax Stamps

Approximately $550,000 in stamps, necessary under the new Federal Emergency War measure, were received this week by John P. Carter, revenue collector for this, sixth, district.

Panama-California Exposition at San Diego

Here are some convincing facts concerning the great Exposition at San Francisco: Not one of the 42 exhibiting foreign nations has withdrawn, while three of them have increased their participation. Seven nations involved in war and five neutral European nations will have their own buildings. Exhibits from eleven foreign countries have already arrived. Forty-three of our states and one city are making individual exhibits. Finally, these exhibitors are spending more money than previously expended in any two other expositions.

DRAINAGE HAS RID LANDS OF ALKALI CURSE

H. S. Hazeltine Says Tiling System Has Made $1,000,000
for Property Owners

Land valued at more than $2,000,000 has recently been reclaimed in California through the application of a special system of the drainage of injurious alkali, according to H. S.
Hazeltine, a leading vegetable grower and one of the foremost figures responsible for this reclamation. Hazeltine is well known in this county as a celery grower and through his connection with the California Vegetable Union, selling agent of the Orange County Celery Growers' Association.

RECIPE TO CLEAR A PIMPLY SKIN

Pimples Are Impurities Seeking an Outlet Through Skin
Pores

Pimples, sores and boils usually result from toxins, poisons and impurities which are generated in the bowels and then absorbed into the blood through the very ducts which should absorb only nourishment to sustain the body.

It is the function of the kidneys to filter impurities from the blood and cast them out in the form of urine, but in many instances the bowels create more toxins and impurities than the kidneys can eliminate, then the blood uses the skin pores as the next best means of getting rid of these impurities which often break out all over the skin in the form of pimples.

The surest way to clear the skin of these eruptions, says a noted authority, is to get from any pharmacy about four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of hot water each morning before breakfast for one week. This will prevent the formation of toxins in the bowels. It also stimulates the kidneys to normal activity, thus coaxing them to filter the blood of impurities and clearing the skin of pimples.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia.
Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear, cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.—Advertisement.

Increase Your Wealth

by investing in land near

Templeton or Paso Robles

This locality has been producing a very superior quality of apples, pears, prunes, cherries, grapes, almonds, and walnuts without irrigation for many years, but it was only recently that any particular attention was paid to the development of the fruit and nut industry.

During the last year or two many thousands of acres have been set out by men from Southern California and orders have been placed with nurseries for trees to plant five thousand acres this coming season.

The Templeton-Paso Robles district produces a wider range of products than is grown in any other one locality between Los Angeles and San Francisco. This locality possesses several distinctive features which make it specially attractive for investment and home building.

Good ranches, most any size, $75.00 to $150.00 per acre. Well located young orchards in fine condition at $275.00 to $400.00 per acre.

within easy motor trucking distance of deep water port world's markets.

glazed tile, most of which was manufactured in California, to accomplish this drainage. More than 75 per cent of the land is located in Southern California, where tile has proved to be of the greatest service. The localities where the most extensive reclamation has been brought about are, in the order of importance, Smeltzer and Talbert, in Orange County, and Chino and Oxnard.

"Prior to the employment of tile canals as a method of draining alkali from the soil, California had 10,000 acres of level and well-located land lying unused which today is under intensive cultivation," declares Mr.
Hazeltine, in the Los Angeles times.
"When it was learned that alkali land could be made of value for the growing of vegetables, sugar beets and lima beans, farmers began buying the land and draining it. Most of the 10, 000 acres were bought at about $50 an acre and after the alkali had been eliminated, the value increased to $200 and $300 per acre.

"The cost of drainage by tile has averaged $40 to the acre, which added to the $50 cost and deducted from the improved $200 value, leaves an increased value of approximately $100 for each acre. Multiplying this $100 by the 10,000 acres under consideration, a total increased valuation of more than $1,000,000 is obtained for the state."

Explaining the method of tile drainage, Mr. Hazeltine said:

"That most in use is a round four-inch red clay tile one foot in length.
Laterals of tile are laid fifty feet apart at a depth of from two to four feet, depending upon the amount of alkali in the soil. The joints are not cemented and the canal is covered with earth. There is a main drainage canal of larger tile at the lowest point on the land, which is connected with all the laterals. The land is flooded with water and this is allowed to stand for a period of a week or longer until it has seeped through the earth and entered the gates and seams in the laterals of tile. This alkali-saturated water naturally drains to the lowest point, which is the main canal, having an outlet generally in a river bottom or on the coast, directly into the sea. It requires one and sometimes two years to eliminate all alkali."

The possibility of draining still greater areas in Southern California is pointed out by Mr. Hazeltine. As a sandy loam soil will drain free of alkali in much shorter time than is required with clay soils, alkali sections in the Imperial Valley could be reclaimed at a very low cost and in record time, he asserts. The increased value of land in Imperial through such reclamation would be enormous.

To keep pace with the growing demand for tile, the largest exclusive tile factory in the West has been erected at Huntington Beach and is now in full operation.

CARABOS WILL NOT SING TONIGHT

Gloom Pervades Army and Navy Officers As They Give Up Gladsome Feast

WASHINGTON, Dec. 19.—Gloom thick enough to cut with a cleaver pervaded army and navy circles today. The reason was that instead of making ready for the gladsome feast of the Carabos, the officers had to content themselves with thinking what good times they used to have when this organization was in its glory.

It was possible today that a few of the members of this famous body might hold an informal gathering tonight at the Army and Navy Club—but as for the regular dinner, with its unusual "stunts" and fun—nothing doing.

The reason for giving up this brilliant function may be found in President Wilson's displeasure at the last affair of the society. At that time, the officers, all of them veterans of the Philippine service, sang their time-honored ditty, "Damn, Damn, Damn the Filipinos." Incidentally, the song suggested civilizing the little brown brothers with a Krag. As the administration stands for peace, and doesn't want anything, even a banquet, to suggest that the administration has ill will toward the Filipinos, the officers responsible for the dinner were "in bad."

Then, too, that same dinner had some by-play about the good ship Puff-blowing the gate receipts with the penny yellows—and that naturally didn't please the President and his premier. Hints of a court-martial were prevalent, but the President merely let the incident go with tendering his resignation to the society and having a reprimand administered to those in charge.

When it came time to make plans for this year's feast, officers decided to stage an "expurgated edition"— minus the "Damn, Damns," the Puff-blow, the Dove of Peace and so on. Later, however, they felt it would be better to eliminate the affair entirely, believing that would show a complete desire to accord with the administration's wishes.

Hence the gloom today.
